

A series of 40 horizontal black bars of varying lengths, stacked vertically, representing a list of redacted text.

A horizontal bar chart consisting of 30 black bars. The bars are arranged vertically, with the longest bar in the center and the lengths decreasing towards the top and bottom. The bars represent a distribution of data, with the longest bar reaching approximately 95% of the width and the shortest bars reaching approximately 10% of the width.